MRS. WILSON'S DEATH

Crushes President and Throws Mantle of Mourning Over the Entire Nation

Gentle Mistress of the White House Passed to Her Last Sleep Yesterday Afternoon

"Doctor, I'm going away; take care of Woodrow," final words of dying wife.

Washington, August 6.—Mrs. Ellen Louise Wilson, wife of President Woodrow Wilson, is dead.

Death occurred at 5 p. m. at the White House, where she had been ill for more than two months.

For several weeks her condition had been considered critical, and she fell away to only a shadow of her former self.

A fall several months ago and a surgical operation on her spine as a result, are said to have been the beginning of her turn for the worse.

It is said that chronic kidney trouble developed after the fall and also her nervous prostration.

President at Bedside

President Wilson had been constantly at her bedside. He even wrote his neutrality proclamation and his offer of mediation to the Powers in connection with the European war while seated by his wife.

For nights he rested on a couch not far from her room, and at times did not remove his clothing for entire nights, for fear he would be called to her bedside.

The President was constantly unnerved by the shock and his grief was heartrending. He bore up well, however, under the strain and devoted himself to his daughters.

Was Minister's Daughter.

Mrs. Wilson, before her marriage to Woodrow Wilson, was Miss Ellen Louise Axson, daughter of Rev. Samuel Edward and Margaret Jane Hoyt Axson.

She was born at Savannah, Ga. Her father was a Presbyterian minister.
She was married to Woodrow Wilson at Savannah, June 24, 1885.

RALPH D. TOMPKINS.

Mr. Ralph D. Tompkins, age 20, of Newberg, N. Y., the one-leg globe trotter, arrived in Maysville this morning. While somewhat worn and weary he seemed in good condition. He left his home last November, and is this far on his tour of the United States.
He is stopping at the White Hall Hotel.
In other cities he has given exhibitions of what a man with one leg can do.

survived by six children to whom he tendered sympathy. His death was due to the infirmities of age and up to a short time before his death had retained his physical and mental powers in a remarkable degree.

Mr. James A. Wallace has accepted the agency for the Boston Insurance Co.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

The British Lion Enraged.
London, England, August 6.—The passage of a war budget for $500,000,000 in the Commons today without opposition and the granting of an army increase of 500,000 men in accordance with the plans of Lord Kitchener, the Minister of War, shows that Great Britain is in deadly earnest.

Deaf To Wilson's Mediation Plans.
Washington, August 6.—No responses have been received tonight to the formal tender of good offices by the United States to the warring powers.

Rapid Progress in Relief.
Rapid progress was made today toward the relief of Americans in Europe.

German Defeat is Confirmed Dispatches came to the State Department from Berlin telling of the repulse of German forces.

Kaiser Calls All Germans to the Fatherland.
Emperor William, of Germany, in an order to the army and navy, called upon all Germans capable of bearing arms to fight for the Fatherland.

8,000 Germans Fell in Battle.
Brussels, August 6.—A night attack on the Belgian positions was awaited with great assurance by the Belgian troops, who had been strongly reinforced. Further German troops were supposed to be on the way to reinforce the regiments which suffered severely in yesterday's attack.

Brussels, via London, August 9.— The Gazette places the loss of the Germans in the repulse at Liege at 8,000 and states that the Belgians suffered far less. The alleged route of the German Seventh corps, the Gazette says, is not confirmed in its entirety.

Expect Battle in Mediterranean.
Paris, August 6.—It is reported here that the French fleet in the Mediterranean is preparing to give battle to the Austrian-German squadron, which is reported to have been ordered to effect a junction for offensive operations against the French.

To Shoot German Officers.
Brussels, August 6.—Two disguised German officers arrested today at Ostend had in their possession extensive military notes and plans of great value.
They are to be shot.

Many German residents were arrested today and charged with espionage.
Every German discovered anywhere in the city is brought before the police who have considerable trouble in protecting the prisoners from attack by the excited crowds. The patriotic enthusiasm here is extraordinary. Nearly all the citizens wear badges with the colors of Belgium, France and England combined.

Thousands of women of all classes have been enrolled as Red Cross nurses and are awaiting the arrival of the wounded from the battlefields around Liege. King Albert has handed over his palace to the Red Cross society and the queen will act as a nurse.

Many hotels also have been transformed into Red Cross stations and the citizens of Brussels have given up their carriages and motor cars for the transportation of the wounded.

Destroyed Zeppelin Airship.
London, August 6.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Brussels reports that a German aeroplane, flying at a height of 1,500 feet, was brought down by a shot, which wounded the pilot. A Zeppelin airship, manned by Germans, was struck by the fire from a Belgian fort and fell near Herze.

Hundreds of automobiles left Brussels during the night to pick up the wounded. The first prisoner of war brought in was a German captain named Forstner, who was wounded.
